Your New Wolfram Site License

Your school has a Wolfram site license for faculty, staff and students to use for instruction or academic research. Below is important information to help you and your campus community get started.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR DISTRIBUTING WOLFRAM PRODUCTS

Wolfram offers multiple ways for making products available to your campus community.

Access for Individual Users

1. Go to wolfram.com/siteinfo and enter your school email address.
2. Select the product you wish to use.
3. Sign in with a Wolfram ID. If you don't have one, create one using your school email address.
   The first time you create your Wolfram ID, check your email and click link to validate your Wolfram ID.
4. Complete the form and follow the instructions to access your product.

Users will automatically receive access to free training materials through Wolfram U.
